Synopsis

A fictional series that tells the stories of Yolanda, a Spanish woman based in Mexico who is hiding a dark past; Raul, her son, who seeks to know the true identity of his father; and Lucia, an upper-class young woman who comes to live in Tepito, a little-adverse neighborhood of Mexico City. The stories of other characters are added that weave the threads around "Hotel Galicia", nestled in the heart of the neighborhood. In a realistic tone, Chronicles of the Castes explores the dramatic dimension of the characters in their deepest complexity.
