Synopsis

Valentina's Couch is a series about a girl who, through everyday experiences, reflects and faces the adventure of growing up with everything that it entails: confusion, decision-making, new friends, change of interests and constant trials in which she is testing affection, loyalty and friendship.

Valentina's Couch is a world full of stories and adventures about what it means to live, laugh and even cry as a family. This series seeks to create positive role models for girls, help children see that certain situations and emotions are common to all and foster positive self-esteem, as well as give them a sense of belonging.

Valentina Valdez Valdivia is starring in the series an intelligent 11-year-old girl, with a great sense of humor and a big heart! Valentina is letting us find out, through her eyes, what living as a family means.

This series for children 5-12 years old, is showing the importance of family and offering a meaningful experience and important values on the background.
