

Juana Inés

Historical

Biographical

Duration

7 x 51'

Producer

Canal Once

Availability

Worldwide

BEFORE BEING HISTORY, SHE WAS JUANA INÉS.

Synopsis

The story of a woman named Juana Inés, who, despite the social conventions of her time, desperately sought a corner favorable to her intellectual development.

A courtesan and later a nun Jerome, protected from viceroys and viceroys, was forced to blood sign her protest of faith and the renewal of her religious vows, in an attempt to silence her voice and ingenuity. A prayer of dramatic situations and rare passages of happiness, in this series where life itself flows with its doses of pain, renunciation, harassment and loneliness, but also the desire to love, create and overcome a bitter destiny.

Fiction series that leads us to meet the woman behind the figure known as Sister Juana Inés de la Cruz, who since her agony, reviews the most significant moments of her existence, marked by love of God and an immense passion for knowledge.

Despite adversity and a solitary vocation, she never abandons her desire to live and create. Before she was History, she was Juana Inés.

Video Link

<https://vimeo.com/showcase/5979618>

Password

J12019

